April 22nd, 1911.

Sir Robert Burnett & Co.,

882-884 West 34th Street,

New York.

Dear Sirs:

I desire to express to you my appreciation of the honor conferred in constituting me a "Member of the Burnett Club," this is most gratifying as the responsibilities are so small and the benefits so substantial.

I have taken the liberty of placing the silver pocket piece in the cabinet of this Society, and having it recorded as a gift from you, and I am sending you herewith an acknowledgment in due form.

Any effort on the part of our enterprising merchants in the direction of introducing the Medallic Art into their business, for advertising or other purposes, is most interesting to me, and this little token that you have put out is one of the best of its kind that has been issued in this country.

In France many beautiful small medals and plaques have been made for advertising purposes, by the best artists that they have. I have in mind a little set of silver pieces, issues by